Appellant's Motion for Extension of Time to File Brief

Now comes the Appellant, J.R., through counsel, and, pursuant to MONT. R. APP. P. 26, requests that the Court grant a thirty-day extension of the time to file the Appellant's brief, or until September 24, 2010. As grounds therefor, counsel for the Appellant relies on the attached Affidavit.

Counsel has conferred with counsel for the Appellee, who has assented to this motion for an extension.

Respectfully submitted,

In the Matter of the) Conservatorship of J.R.,) Affidavit of Counsel
a protected person)

I, Janet Hetherwick Pumphrey, hereby state and depose:

1. I have been retained to represent the Appellant in the appeal of the above-captioned matter.
2. I am an appellate attorney, admitted to practice in Massachusetts. On July 1, 2010, I filed a Pro Hac Vice application with the State Bar of Montana. On July 19, 2010, I filed a Notice of Appearance with the First Judicial District Court, and filed contemporaneously herewith is a Notice of Appearance in this Court.
3. I received a CD of the transcript from the court reporter, but I have not as yet received the entire District Court record.
4. The Appellant's brief is due on August 25th. I am requesting an additional thirty-day extension to September 24, 2010 to give me time to assemble the necessary documents and to research and write the Appellant's brief.
5. I also anticipate that I will need this additional time to become familiar with the Montana Rules of Appellate Practice.
6. Through voice mails, I have conferred with opposing counsel, Jacqueline Lenmark, and she has assented to this Motion.

Signed under pains and penalties of perjury,

Janet Hetherwick Pumphrey
